JOSEPHINE FELDER
COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATIONAL AWARD
2023

The National Council of Negro Women, Inc. (NCNW) is a service organization that seeks to help women improve the quality of life for themselves, their families and their communities. Educator and national leader, Mary McLeod Bethune, founded NCNW in 1935. In keeping with Mrs. Bethune’s legacy of “Leave No One Behind,” the Tidewater Section of NCNW will offer one NEED BASED educational award in the amount of $500 to an African American female planning to attend a COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

The recipient will be honored after selected and the financial award will be mailed to the recipient in the fall upon presentation of proof of college enrollment.

ELIGIBILITY

The applicant must:

1. Be an African American female.
2. Be a graduating senior from a public high school in Portsmouth, Suffolk, or Chesapeake planning to attend Paul D. Camp, Thomas Nelson, or Tidewater Community College
OR
Be currently enrolled at Paul D. Camp, Thomas Nelson or Tidewater Community College.
3. Demonstrate and document a financial need.
4. Have a grade point average of 2.8 or higher.
5. Participate in school, community, and church activities.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Complete the application neatly.
2. Submit an official high school transcript including SAT and/or ACT scores OR college transcript, if currently enrolled in college.
3. Submit two letters of recommendation from either the high school principal, teacher, guidance counselor, community leader, or a person other than a relative.
4. Submit a copy of the college acceptance letter OR proof of current college enrollment status.
5. Submit a copy of both parents’/guardians’ current 1040 tax form (2022) or other proof of current income. If independent and currently enrolled in college, submit a copy of your current 1040 tax form (2022) or other proof of current income.
